New LITTLE Entry and BIG Prize Money!

Thanks to stellar efforts by several club members, we have been able to lower the entry fees for the Cabin Fever Classic, while at the same time ensuring BIG payouts from new Sponsors! Big thanks to club members Shon Childers, Ed Chin, Zip Decker, and Chip Grisham for securing all the sponsorship for the event.

First prize in the CFC this year will be $1,500, donated by Vancouver Toyota! And, big fish will be worth $1,000 thanks to Bioline. That means top winner could net $2,500! There are other great payouts as well as a big raffle. Get entered and encourage your fishing buddies to participate: Entry fee is only $50 per team! The flyer is attached to the newsletter and entry forms are on the club website.

Proposed Tournament Schedule

The final tournament schedule will be voted upon at the February meeting. Below is the proposed schedule.

Sat. March 28 - Cabin Fever Classic already permitted

Sun. April 26th - Cascade Locks

Sat. May 16 - The Dalles

Sun. June 14 - Celilo Park

Sat. July 11th - TBD

Sat. Sun. Aug 15, 16 - Prineville Reservoir. Two Day Get Away camping event.

Sat - Sept 19 - Willamette Park

Sun - Oct 11- Hood River

Unfortunately, the proposed April event at Silver Lake was denied by the State of Washington due to two tournaments already being sanctioned for April. Cascade Locks has been proposed with other sites possible. We will discuss at the meeting.

Proposed Tournament Rule Change

At the January meeting, a rule change was proposed by Chuck Smith and seconded by Cliff McClelland. It will be voted on at the February meeting. The text of the change is:

If a boater wishes to enter a tournament after the drawing has been held, that boater must call the tournament director to enter. If there were non-boaters who did not get a ride in the draw, the non-boater with the highest priority will be paired with the late-entry boater. If there are no non-boaters without a ride, the late-entry boater may fish alone or bring a guest.
